

Invites you to a one-day seminar with Patricia Coughlin on the topic of:

Understanding and resolving sexual conflicts with Intensive Short-Term Dynamic Psychotherapy (ISTDP)

In this full day video conference, Dr Patricia Coughlin, an expert in Intensive Short term Dynamic Psychotherapy (ISTDP), will focus on understanding conflicts around sexuality. We will discuss how to detect the presence of these conflicts in your patients, as well as elucidating methods designed to resolve them. Videotaped examples of work with patients who struggle with conflicts are round sex, jealousy and rivalry will be included.

Patricia Coughlin (Della Selva), Ph.D., is a licensed Clinical Psychologist with over 35 years of clinical experience. Currently she is Clinical Faculty at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine. Over the past 20 years she has written professionally, given presentations at professional conferences and conducted workshops for mental health professionals internationally. Currently, she is conducting training groups in New York, Australia, Denmark, and Poland.

She has authored three books which are all considered essential readings for anyone interested in ISTDP: Intensive Short term Dynamic Psychotherapy: Theory and Technique (1996), Lives Transformed (2006; in collaboration with Dr. David Malan) and Maximizing Therapeutic Effectiveness in Dynamic Psychotherapy (2016).
